

SGOURNIOU VASILIKI

Short Curriculum Vitae

Vasiliki Sgourniou is a graduate of School of Early Childhood Education of Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (AUTH). She holds a Master's Degree of School of Social Theology and Christian Culture of AUTH. She has attended various training seminars of the National Center for Public Administration and Local Government, seminars in music pedagogy and educational training programs for kindergarten teachers.

She has collaborated with the School of Early Childhood Education of AUTH for the implementation of the Student Practice Programme of its students in the context of the experimental implementation of modern pedagogical approaches and teaching methods and strategies.

She worked as a Kindergarten teacher in Private Education and at the Child Care Centre (Paidiko Kentro) of AUTH. She also worked in administrative positions and positions and participated in various committees of AUTH.

Since 2019 she is a member, as Special Technical Laboratory Staff, of the Laboratory of Pedagogy and Christian Pedagogy at the School of Social Theology and Christian Culture of AUTH supporting its various scientific and administrative work.

Her scientific interests are within the broader field of Educational Sciences and related to issues of crisis management and behavioral problems of students in the school environment.